DUES

We encourage members of Congregation Micah to donate whatever you have been contributing to any former congregation, or as much as you are comfortable with, although there is a suggested minimum of $500.* Dues will support the operation of the congregation (administrative costs, insurance, supplies), Cantor Janine Schwarz, and High Holy Services including technical broadcast help and rental of the audio studio and meeting space. Rabbi Bemporad receives no remuneration for his services. Suggested fees for specific lifecycle events are paid to the officiant and are not part of the operation of the Congregation.

*Those wishing to join Congregation Micah who find themselves in financial need will not be turned away.
